HERBERT HOOVER: A GRANDSON OF OHIO

OLD RECORDS SHOW FOUR GENERATIONS OF ANCESTORS IN MIAMI COUNTY

*Gladys I. Mix

West Milton, O. (special) HERBERT HOOVER is a grandson of Ohio. Four generations of Hoover's paternal ancestors lived, as man or boy, on the old Hoover farm located about one mile southwest of this Ohio village, in Union Township, Miami County.

Two generations of them -- his father and grandfather -- were both born here. Two generations -- great grandfather and great great grand father -- died here and rest in the burial ground of the old West Branch Quaker church, the church where Hoover's grandmother used to preach to the women's sessions of the Friends' meetings.

The Hoovers came to Ohio in 1802, when John Hoover, great great grandfather of the present Secretary of Commerce, left North Carolina, because of objections to slavery, and sought a home in the new Quaker colony that was being established in Miami county. He obtained from President Jefferson a patent to a section of land and settled down to establish his home and rear his family.

With John Hoover came his son Jesse, then a mere boy. Jesse grew up, married, and among his children was a son Eli, who, when he married, established his home on an eight-acre plot of the original section that had been entered by his grandfather. Here, on Sept.2, 1847, Jesse Clark Hoover, father of Herbert Clark Hoover, was born.

GRANDMOTHER DIES IN OHIO

To Eli Hoover and his wife, who had been MARY DAVIS, were born here four children-- Allen, Eunice, Henry and Rebecca. In the early '50s, Mrs. Hoover fell into a decline. The country doctor said she had a "pulmonary disease," but doctors today would probably diagnose her ailment as consumption. A change of climate was decided upon and on Oct.1,1853, the little farm was sold. Before a change could be made, however, Mrs. Hoover's condition became worse. She could not travel. For her, the decision to move had come too late and she died early in 1854. Within a few weeks her daughter, Eunice, also died of "a congestion of the lungs."

Leaving wife and daughter in the old West Branch burial ground, where his father and grandfather already rested, Eli Hoover with his four remaining children moved west -- to Iowa.

OHIO'S GRANDSON WINS FAME

There Jesse Hoover grew up and married and to them--at West Branch Iowa-- on Oct.10,1874, was born a son whom they named Herbert Clark.

That son, grown to manhood and having won fame and fortune in his profession as engineer, caught the attention and fired the imagination of America in the early days of the World War by the initiative and resourcefulness with which he plunged into the problem of assisting Americans stranded abroad, and this done, turned to the labor of feeding and housing the destitute noncombatants in Belgium and Northern France, left in the wake of the German war machine.

Today, that son, with a record of accomplishment in public service equalled by few men in so short a span of years, a tried and proven executive in the cabinets of two presidents, has been placed by his friends and admirers in the race for the presidency.

Should he win out, Ohio will be able to place yet another feather in her cap. For she would have, this time, a grandson in the White House.

OLD RECORDS TELL STORY

This story of Hoover as a grandson of Ohio is disclosed by a search of the land records of Miami County, Ohio, filed in the recorder's office at Troy, and by the records of the West Branch Friends church, now in possession of Mrs. Frances Thomas, near here.

The home in which Jesse Hoover -- Herbert Hoover's father-- was born, is still standing.- It is located on old Butler Road, a short mile from West Milton and about 18 miles north of Dayton.

On Pig Eye Road, another mile to the south, is the old West Branch Meeting House, where Herbert Hoover's grandmother, at monthly meetings, preached to the women's sessions. The old church, dilapidated and in disrepair and now used for drying tobacco, still shows, however, the remnants of the old partition that divided the men from the women in their religious services.

Across the road from the church is the cemetery where Hoover's great great grandfather and great grandfather are buried. There, too, rest his grandmother and the aunt, Eunice, who died in childhood.

The stones to these graves are so worn that only a search of the cemetery records will disclose which grave is which, but it is believed two worn sandstone slabs, standing close together at one edge of the Hoover plot, mark the graves of Eunice Hoover and her mother Mary.

TRANSFER FOR IOWA

The transfer of Eli Hoover and his four children from the West Branch church to the Red Cedar Monthly Meeting of Friends, Iowa, is fully recounted in the carefully kept church records under the date of March 16, 1854 is this entry:

"Eli Hoover requests a certificate of removal for himself and four minor children to Red Cedar Monthly Meeting of Friends, Iowa. Luke S. Mote and Riley Davis are appointed to make the necessary inquiry and if they find nothing to hinder to prepare and produce one to the next meeting."

On the following page the transfer is shown duly approved and signed.

While his father and grandfather quit Ohio at that time, there remained behind in the Buckeye state a host of relatives who, with their descendants, may now claim and establish kinship with Herbert Hooover.

HOST OF RELATIVES IN STATE

There had come into Ohio with great great grandfather John Hoover, four brothers -- Andrew, Jacob, Daniel & David. Of these and their offspring it is estimated some 3000 Quaker inhabitants of Miami, Darke, Preble and Montgomery Counties can trace their ancestry to a common parent with the Secretary of Commerce.

Relationship by direct descent, or through marriage, can be established by many of the key families of these thrifty, thriving Quaker counties. Among the families known to be so related are the COATES, COPPOCKS, HALLS, HAYWORTHS, BRANDONS, JONES, HOELS & HOLES.

HERBERT HOOVER: A GRANDSON OF OHIO

So, if Herbert Hoover, perhaps as President Hoover, ever undertakes to stage a family reunion for his Ohio relatives at the White House, even the spacious East Room will not suffice. He'll have to hire the Washington Auditorium.

WOOSTER, OHIO CLAIMS MRS. HOOVER AS GRANDDAUGHTER HER ANCESTOR, WILLIAM HENRY, HELPED LAY OUT CITY

Wooster, O. 14 Apr 1928. (Special) Miami County's pride in having been the home of four generations of Herbert Hoover's ancestors is matched by that of Wayne County in the fact that Mrs. Hoover, formerly Miss Lou Henry, is a granddaughter of Wooster and that her great great grandfather, William HENRY, helped lay out this town.

The old home where Charles Henry, father of Mrs. Hoover, lived as a young man, is still standing at Walnut and North Streets and is occupied by Bert CORNELIUS, who operates a garage and taxi service in the rear.

Squire Lewis BOLUS, now 83 years old, is one of the few boyhood playmates of Charles Henry still living.

"I remember very well when Charlie moved away," Squire Bolus says, in recounting old times. "He was grown up--must have been about 27 or 28. He and I had been close friends all through our play and school days. We played ball together a lot. And we quarreled a good deal, too, I guess. Charlie liked to argue and debate, and was very brilliant at it and sometimes I made him mad with my arguments.

"Charlie's father owned a hardware store in East Liberty Street, just two doors off the public square, where Brenner Brothers clothing store is now. He was a very substantial citizen. Everybody liked the Henrys. Mrs. Henry, Charlie's mother, was a big hearted, generous woman who never turned anyone in need from her door. Charlie was keen witted and quick as a cat."

William Henry, great great grandfather of Mrs. Hoover, helped survey this district for the government back in 1807. That was just five years after Hoover's great great grandfather had settled in Miami County. One of William Henry's companions on this surveying expedition was Ezekiel Hoover, whom local historians believe to have been related to the Miami county Hoovers.

Shortly after he had helped the government survey, William Henry, who had lived in Beaver County, Pa., came here with John Bever and Joseph Lawril and took patents to 640 acres each. They laid out the town of Wooster and three of the down town streets still bear their names.

Charles Henry, now past 83, is still living in California, where he moved in 1873 when he left Wooster. In company with Mrs. Hoover, he stopped over for a visit at the old home about a year ago.

"There weren't many of us old bucks left," Squire Bolus says, "but I know Charlie had a good time. And Wooster's going to be extra proud of him, too, when that daughter gets to be mistress of the White House!"

OHIO COUSIN, IN WHOSE HOME HOOVER LIVED AS ORPHAN, TELLS OF HIS BOYHOOD HARDSHIPS

Sabina OH 17 Apr 1928. (Special) Memories of the hardships of Herbert Hoover's boyhood days, following the deaths of his father and mother which left him an orphan at the age of eight, are recalled by Mrs. Lillian Hoover Hammond of this little town in southwestern Ohio.

Mrs. Hammond, wife of the pastor of the Sabina Friends' Church, is a cousin of the secretary of commerce. Mrs. Hammond's father, Davis Hoover, was an uncle of Herbert and it was in her home at West Branch, Iowa, that he lived as a boy for several years following the deaths of his parents.

"Herbert was a hard working, conscientious boy," says Mrs. Hammond. "He had lots of hard work to do, but he was always cheerful and willing and could be depended upon to finish what he started. He didn't have an easy time, but that didn't bother him. Even as a youngster he made up his mind to have an education and he didn't mind working hard and scrimping to get one. Nothing could divert him from that ambition."

In addition to Herbert, a brother, Theodore, and a sister, Mary, had to be provided with homes among the Hoover relatives at West Branch. In Mrs. Hammond's old family album is a group picture of these three cousins. This photo of Herbert, then in his early teens, clearly shows the characteristics of purpose and decision that have marked his career as engineer and public servant.

"In school," Mrs. Hammond states, "Herbert was the envy of every pupil. He was a leader among the boys and had a most remarkable ability to grasp knowledge. In fact, his ability to learn readily and the leadership which he held in his classes was responsible for no little jealousy of him among his schoolmates, including even some of his cousins. This didn't bother him, however. He went along minding his own business, doing his work and piling up the highest grades in his classes.

"When the chores at home were done and the rest of us children would pile off to bed, Herbert would go ahead studying by an old oil lamp until he had all his lessons letter-perfect. The result was that when he graduated from West Branch School, he received the highest honors of his class. And he certainly deserved them."

On Sundays, Mrs. Hammond states, Herbert was a regular attendant at the little Quaker church of Marshall County, Iowa. In Sunday school plays, at Christmas and Easter, he usually had a leading part.

Long days of work and privation were necessary for him to earn and save enough money to take him to Pacific College in Oregon, Mrs. Hammond says. He arrived at the school with but a few dollars more than the necessary entrance fee. But he soon found odd jobs that gave him enough income to pay his way, and during summer vacations he returned to Iowa, hoed corn and worked in the fields with his cousins.

[Accompanying the article are several pictures, including: Mrs. Mary Van Ness Leavitt, sister of Herbert Hoover. She resides in Santa Monica Calif., and is naturally an ardent supporter of the California group which is backing the Hoover candidacy. Her son will cast his first ballot in November.

PROBLEMS IN INTERPRETING AGES IN FEDERAL CENSUS

*Leo H. Garman, C.G.

A number of possible inaccuracies arise in ages as shown in censuses. The subject may have lied because: (1) he or she didn't want to admit the actual age, or (2) there was not a conventional relationship between the ages of a husband and wife. Probably a more common reason for inaccuracy was that the person giving the information to the enumerator simply was guessing, and innocently gave the wrong facts. Only one person answered for the household, and the information was only as good as that person's knowledge.

However, a very common error in interpretation occurs even though the facts were reported correctly to the enumerator. This problem arises because of faulty calculation with respect to the reported age. Let's say, for example, that John Smith is listed as being 35 years of age in the 1850 census, and let's assume that the age was reported correctly. It is a frequent error that John's birth year is consequently reported as having been "1815." This is not precise. His birth year was either 1814 or 1815. The census was taken in June or July, and the age reported was usually the age at the last birthday. As a result, if John had been born in September 1814, he would have said (in June or July 1850) that he was 35 years old. This was correct because John had not yet had his 36th birthday, yet if one subtracts 35 from 1850 one concludes that he was born in 1815, which is not correct.

The best conclusion that can be made from a census age is that the subject person was born in the year arrived at by subtracting the age from the census year, or in the previous year.

Other problems may occur due to the enumerator recopying the information before submitting it. Sometimes the information is transposed, or dropped down one line.

Researchers should also be aware that the birth years reported in the 1900 census are frequently off by one year.

LLOYD FAMILY

Grace M. Sproull*

This record is the equivalent of a Bible Record, found in a small leather-bound volume titled THE SCHOOLMASTERS ASSISTANT, BEING A COMPENDIUM OF ARITHMETIC BOTH PRACTICAL AND THEORETICAL IN FIVE PARTS, by Thomas Dilworth, Wilmington.- Printed and sold by Peter Brynberg, MDCCXCVI (1796). The book was in the possession of Oliver T. Sproull, M.D. (1863--1944), the father of the submitter, who states: "Our family was not related to the Lloyd family and I have no way of knowing how or where my father secured the book. It may have been given to him by a patient, but it seems more probable to me that he found it in a second-hand book store, perhaps in Pennsylvania or Maryland."

On a blank page at the end of the book the name of THOMPSON LLOYD is written twice. On another blank page, "Thompson Lloyd His Book, bought from (two words not legible) William King, price 4/ shillings."

The Lloyd family became widely scattered, with many appearing in Ohio at later dates. This obscure record may be helpful to descendants.

MELANCHOLY EVENT

*Shirley Cruzen Stevens

The following item was found in the Charles Town, Virginia, FARMERS REPOSITORY, 27 Aug 1817.

Zanesville Ohio 31 July 1817.
Died, in Licking Township, last week, Mr. Jonathan CLARK, late one of the editors of the Zanesville Express. The circumstances attending the sudden decease of Mr.C. are singular and lamentable.

A few months since he married into a respectable family in the township of Licking, he was pssessed of handsome property and his prospects of life were flattering. Some recent disappointments in his calculations had operated to depress his spirits; and on his last visit to this place (the 22nd inst) he discovered strong symptoms hypochondriacal affection, and his countenance indicated the deepest rejection and gloom-- which are particularly remarked by his acquaintance. He departed from town on the morning of Wednesday last. On the succeeding day, his horse was found alone near the residence of his friends in Licking Township. This circumstance excited alarm, and after much search, he was found in a deserted cabin near the road, hanging by a small rope attached to the joists! In his pocket book was found a letter addressed to his wife, of which the following is a copy. It exhibits the mental distraction of its unfortunate author.

"Dear wife, My situation is such that I cannot control my circumstances any longer. God in his Providence has seen fit to reduce me to such state that I cannot get a living in this world. I repent - I sincerely repent of having caused you the pangs which you must feel. O Nancy! Forgive me - and God will forgive me. I must die - for I cannot get a living. My way is hemmed up. O miserable creature that I am! What have I done that I must come to this? O Lord God forgive me. Thou wilt surely be merciful to me Nancy! My head is on fire! O forgive me! O God forgive me! I have always endeavored to get a living but God has seen fit to close up my way. What shall I now do? I cannot write, for I can say nothing to this purpose. O, forgive me, and O! will your relations forgive me! Eternally adieu!" J.Clark

The fatal instrument of his death (a common plough line) was purchased at a store in this place just previous to his leaving it. The Coroner's inquest, summoned to view the body, returned a verdict of suicide. Mr. Clark was a native of Worcester County in Massachusetts and had resided in this state for several years.

BATTLE WITH THE INDIANS

*Shirley Cruzen Stevens

The FARMERS REPOSITORY, Charles Town, Jefferson County, VA, reported the following story on 8 Jan 1813.

Franklinton Ohio, Dec.20,1812.

Captain HITE has just arrived, express from Colonel CAMPBELL's detachment, which, it will be recollected, left this place on the 18th ult on a secret expedition. From him we learn the following account of a most obstinate and hard fought battle, in which the valor, intrepidity and firmness of the American troops shone with a lustre which has never been surpassed during the present war.

On the 17th, after marching all night, Colonel CAMPBELL, with his command, arrived at one of the Massasinewa towns, and instantly charged upon the town, drove the savages across the Massasinewa River, killed 7 of them, and took 37 prisoners - only two of our men were killed in the skirmish. While contending with the enemy of this town, they sent a runner to another of the towns, about three miles distant, which was immediately evacuated.

On the 18th, before daybreak, the horrid savage yell was heard, the word was given to arms, and a most desperate conflict commenced. Captain PIERCE of the Zanesville troop, behaved gallantly and died nobly. Lieutenant WALTZ, of Captain MARKLE's company from Greenburg Pennsylvania, was shot through the arm, and not being satisfied with that, he again endeavored to mount his horse, and in making the effort, was shot dead. His death was glorious.

Captain TROTTER, while charging with fury upon the enemy, was wounded in the hand. Lieutenants BASEY and HICKMAN were slightly wounded. A great number of horses were killed. The action continued with unabated fury for one hour, when the savages were routed and driven in all directions.

Captain HITE states that between 30 and 40 Indians were known to be killed -- how many were wounded could not be ascertained, 37 were taken prisoners. We had two officers and six privates killed and three officers and about twenty-three privates wounded, eight supposed dangerous. The town where the battle was fought was burnt, and three other towns were also burnt. The Indians were of the Delaware and Miami tribes and entirely destitute of any kind of valuable property. It was stated that Tecumseh, with four or five hundred warriors, was about 15 miles from the scene of action and our troops anticipated another attack upon their return.

The attack commenced on the right line commanded by Major BALL, who repelled it with that firm and manly courage which is his distinguishing characteristic. To attempt to bestow praise upon one officer, or one private, more than another. All fought with equal bravery - all deserve the highest encomiums. One hundred volunteers are to march to Greenville to reinforce Col. CAMPBELL.

MRS. JOHN LYTLE, residing west of Frankfort, died very suddenly on last Tues. morning, of heart disease. After the family were seated at the breakfast table she got up and returned to her room to lie down. When the family had finished breakfast and returned to the room she was dead. Her remains were taken to the Green Lawn Cemetery on Wednesday.

MRS. JANE CHAPMAN, wife of 'SQUIRE CHAPMAN of the Valley House, after a lingering illness of several weeks, died on Wednesday night at 10 o'clock, of typhoid fever, aged 65 years. MRS. CHAPMAN was a most estimable lady and had many friends in this county who will be pained to learn of her death. The funeral will take place Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

A very large portion of the community will be pained to learn of the death of MR. CHARLES IGNATIUS POLAND, son of the well-known citizen, PATRICK POLAND, Esq., which occurred at his father's residence, No.116 E.4th St., at 10 o'clock last evening ... he had not reached his 28th year. He died in the full enjoyment of the rites of the Catholic Church, of which he was a consistent and loyal son, and had in his last hours the prayers of two brothers who are priests in the Society of Jesus, and of a sister who is in the Convent of the Sacred Heart, St.Louis. Mr.LAWRENCE POLAND, deceased's younger brother, is a student of electricity. The funeral arrangements will not be definitely decided on until Fathers JOHN and WILLIAM POLAND can be heard from. MR.POLAND, the deceased, is a nephew of MAJOR WM. POLAND of this city.

MR.SIMON RATCLIFF, one of the oldest citizens of Liberty Twp., died on Thurs. morning of last week at the advanced age of 85 years. MR.RATCLIFF had been ailing for sometime back but was only confined to his bed for a short time before his death. MR.RATCLIFF was born in Chatham Co., Pennsylvania [sic: N.C.], Aug.28, 1800, and emigrated to this county when a lad only 4 years of age, and has lived in Liberty Twp. ever since. He has been elected to several offices, among them being County Commissioner, in which capacity he made a good and faithful official. He leaves quite a handsome estate to be equally divided among his 3 children who are all married. It is said the estate will reach to the amount of from $75,000 to $100,000. The funeral services took place on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock and were conducted by REV.W.S.BACON of the Universalist Church, Cincinnati. The remains were interred at the Gillispieville cemetery.

The "Census of 1802" was part of the enumeration of the population in Ohio taken in preparation to Ohio's statehood. The Western Reserve became Trumbull County in 1800, when civil jurisdiction passed from Connecticut to the control of the governor of the Northwest Territory. The new county was then divided into districts. There were eight townships in all: Youngstown, Warren, Vernon, Hudson, Richfield, Middlefield, Painesville and Cleveland. Painesville was the smallest in size, and consisted of the future townships of Willoughby, Hambden, Leroy, Chardon, Mentor, Kirtland, Perry and Concord. In 1802, the enumeration of Painesville was made by Jared Ward. It showed that there were 35 families in the township, with a total voting population of 83.

The number of free male Inhabitants of the age of twenty one years within my township of Painesville consists of sixty six of twenty one years and upwards, as appears in the schedule hereunto anexed. Subscribed by me this third day of June in the year 1802. JARED WARD, Constb.

Schedule of the number of free male inhabitants of twenty one years of age within the Township alloted to me Jared Ward, Constable.

The headings read: (1) Heads of Families, and (2) Number of free males of 21 years including heads of families.

JARED WARD, AN OHIO PIONEER

In addition to the previous list which was compiled by Jared Ward in 1802, a manuscript titled "Jared Ward - An Ohio Pioneer and Four Josiah Wards & Their Progenies", compiled by Doris R. Sheridan in July 1982, had been submitted to the OGS Library. Parts of it have been borrowed here.

"Jared[3] WARD (Josiah[2], Josiah[1]) was the son of Josiah[2] & Leah (Webb) Ward, and was born in Springfield, Mass., 27 Dec 1767, baptized 10 July 1768. Jared died in Milan, Ohio, in 1857, and is buried there at the Quaker Cemetery.

"Jared Ward was married twice. His first wife was Huldah COLLINS, and the second was widow Asenath (MUNSON) RUSSELL, whom he married 28 July 1817, probably in New London, Ohio. She was the widow of Nathaniel RUSSELL.

"According to the death notice of Jared's granddaughter Sarah McKEWN, he came to Ohio from Connecticut. He was not found in the 1790 census of Connecticut, but a Jared Ward was found living in Balltown, Albany Co., NY, in 1790.- This may be Jared of Ohio.

"Jared was in the town of Mentor, Ohio in 1800, and by 1803, he resided in Painesville. Jared came to the town of Huron in 1808/9, where he lived on the FLEMMOND property for about one year before removing to Avery, Ohio, now Milan.

"Betsey (WARD) COLLINS, a daughter of Jared, in an article published in the Sept. 1876 Firelands Pioneer, reminisced about the time her father came to Huron. In Avery, the Wards settled on land which formerly belonged to David ABBOT, another early settler.

"The town of Avery was the site of Fort Avery, a military outpost used during the War of 1812.- The principal means of transportation was water, since Avery was located on the Huron River near Lake Erie.

"In the spring of 1811 a road was laid out in Avery by Jared WARD, Jabez WRIGHT and Charles BARNUM. In 1815 Jared's name was on a tax bill in Huron Township, and in April 1819, he was a member of the jury for a trial involving two Indians who murdered two men from Danbury, Erie Co., Ohio.

"Jerrod Ward is found in the 1850 census living in Milan Tp., Erie County, p64, listed as being aged 86 years, born in Massachusetts."

U.S. FEDERAL CENSUSES,
1790-1920

By William Thorndale & William Dollarhide

From the time of the first federal census in 1790 the county has been used as the basic census unit, with all persons within the county's jurisdiction being enumerated every ten years. Genealogical research in the census, therefore, begins with identifying correct county jurisdictions. To assist in this identification, the Map Guide shows all U.S. county boundaries from 1790 to 1920. (This covers all federal censuses open to public research until the year 2002.) On each of the nearly 400 maps the old county lines are superimposed over the modern ones to highlight the boundary changes at ten-year intervals.

The Map Guide also includes (1) a history of census growth; (2) a précis of technical facts about each census; (3) a discussion of census accuracy; (4) an essay on the sources available for identifying each state's old county lines; and (5) a statement with each map indicating which county census lists survive and which are lost. Finally, there is an index which lists all present-day counties, plus nearly all defunct counties or counties later re-named — the most complete list of American counties ever published.

The detail is overwhelming, and there is little doubt that this meticulously researched and executed publication is now the number one tool in U.S. census research.

8½" × 11". 445 pp., cloth. 1987. $49.95 plus $2.00 postage & handling. Maryland residents add 5% sales tax.
